Guidelines for Authors

Manuscripts will be acknowledged on receipt. Following preliminary review by the Editor, they will be sent to members of the Editorial Board. Generally, 3 to 4 months elapse between acknowledgment of receipt and notification of disposition of a manuscript. On publication, each author will receive five copies of the Journal. Verse and In The Field authors will receive two copies of the Journal.

Following are guidelines for developing and submitting a manuscript. Manuscripts that do not conform to these guidelines will be returned to the author without review.

Manuscript Categories

1. Full-length articles. Manuscripts should be typed in lines of 62 spaces and generally should not exceed 500 lines. In tallying lines authors should be sure to count everything (including headings, footnotes, tables, and references) except the title and abstract. They should include an abstract of approximately 125 words.

2. Dialogues. These should follow the length and abstract requirements of full-length articles. They should take the form of verbatim exchange, oral or written, between two or more people.

3. In The Field articles. Manuscripts should be typed in lines of 62 spaces and should not exceed 230 lines. In tallying lines authors should be sure to count everything (including headings, footnotes, tables, and references) except the title and abstract. They should report on or describe new practices, programs, or techniques and relate practice to theory by citing appropriate literature. An abstract of 50 words should be included.

4. Letters and Comment. Letters to the editor should be under 300 words. Those accepted for publication may be edited or abridged.

Typing and Other Requirements

1. Send the original and two clear copies. Original should be typed on 8½" × 11" nontranslucent white bond. Do not use onionskin or erasable bond.

2. Include an abstract or abstracts as instructed above. See current issues of JCD (P&G) for examples.

3. Double-space everything, including references, quotations, tables, and figures. Leave extra space above and below subheads.

4. Leave generous margins (at least an inch all around) on each page.

5. Manuscripts should be typed in lines of 62 spaces.

6. Avoid footnotes whenever possible.

7. Use tables sparingly and type them on separate pages. Include only essential data and combine tables wherever possible. Refer to a recent copy of the Journal for style of tabular presentations. Figures (graphs, illustrations, line drawings) should be supplied as camera-ready art (glossies prepared by a commercial artist) wherever possible. Figure captions may be attached to the art and will be set in the appropriate type.

8. Lengthy quotations (generally 300–500 cumulative words or more from one source) require written permission from the copyright holder for reproduction. Adaptation of tables and figures also requires reproduction approval from the copyrighted source. It is the author's responsibility to secure such permission, and a copy of the publisher's written permission must be provided the journal editor immediately upon acceptance of the article for publication by AACD.

9. Place authors' names, positions, titles, place of employment, and mailing addresses on the cover page only so that the manuscripts may be reviewed anonymously.

10. For arrangement and form of references, subheads, tables, etc., see recent issues of JCD (P&G). (A valuable resource for authors regarding manuscript preparation in general and reference style in particular is the Publication Manual, Third Edition, of the American Psychological Association. Ordering information can be obtained from APA, 1400 N. Uhle Street, Arlington, Va. 22201.)

11. Avoid the use of the generic masculine pronoun and other sexist terminology. Also, use such terms as client, student, or participant rather than subject.

12. Never submit material that is under consideration by another periodical.

13. Submit manuscripts to: Rodney Goodyear, Editor, Journal of Counseling and Development, 503G, WPH, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA 90089-0031. Authors should keep a copy of their manuscripts to guard against loss. Do not send them to the Virginia office of AACD; this will delay handling.

Note: Authors bear full responsibility for the accuracy of references, quotations, tables, and figures. The AACD Press has discontinued the practice of sending galley proofs to authors. Instead, a computer printout is supplied to authors for any necessary and relevant corrections.
